OVERSIGHT BOARD OF THE SUCCESSOR AGENCY TO THE COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF HUNTINGTON PARK REPORT

DATE: August 8, 2012

TO: Honorable Chair and Board Members of the Oversight Board

FROM: Jack Wong, Interim Community Development Director

BY: Fernanda Palacios, Project Manager

SUBJECT: Recommendation to approve a Resolution approving an administrative budget for the Successor Agency for the six-month period of January 1, 2013 – June 30, 2013 and a Cooperative Agreement with the City and Successor Agency

BACKGROUND: Upon dissolution of the Community Development Commission of the City of Huntington Park on February 1, 2012 pursuant to AB X1 26, the Successor Agency to the Community Development Commission of the City of Huntington Park was constituted and is governed by a board of directors consisting of the members of the City Council.

Pursuant to AB X1 26, the Successor Agency is required to undertake a number of actions related to winding down the affairs of the former Community Development Commission. For example, the Successor Agency will have a number of ongoing responsibilities, such as paying debt service on enforceable obligations of the former Redevelopment Agency and preparing an administrative budget and Recognized Obligation Payment Schedule (ROPS) for each six-month fiscal period.

“Administrative Cost allowance” is an amount payable from property tax revenues of up to 5 percent of property tax allocated to the Successor Agency on the ROPS covering the period of January 1, 2012 through June 30, 2012, and up to 3 percent of the property tax for subsequent ROPS, but not less than $250,000 per year. In the event there are insufficient funds to pay the former Redevelopment Agency’s enforceable obligations, some or all of the Administrative Cost Allowance will be used to pay for the enforceable obligations. In the event there are insufficient funds to pay the former Redevelopment Agency’s enforceable obligations, some or all of the Administrative Cost Allowance will be used to pay for the enforceable obligations, and these funds will therefore, not be available for administrative expenses to the Successor Agency. The Successor Agency is required to submit each proposed administrative budget to the Oversight Board for its approval and then to the County Auditor-Controller and Department of Finance for final approval.

DISCUSSION/ANALYSIS: On April 10, 2012, the Successor Agency entered into a Cooperative Agreement with the City to provide access for the Successor Agency to use City's staff, facilities, and other resources for the administration and operations of the Successor Agency and reimbursement to the City for such advances. The attached administrative budget provides additional information regarding personnel costs, benefits, indirect expenses, legal fees for the Successor Agency and Oversight Board. General administrative personnel expenses are costs associated with the general administration and operations of the Successor Agency (i.e. preparation and payment of obligations listed in the ROPS, preparation of agendas, minutes, and staff reports for meetings with the Successor Agency and Oversight Board). The attached budget shows in detail the positions, salaries and percentages estimated for general administrative personnel costs. Additionally, staff has prioritized payments under the third administrative budget.

The administrative budget does not include "Project Delivery Costs" for costs related to city staff and consultants working on specific project implementation activities, such as project management and construction inspection. Although, the Oversight Board denied staff's requests to include project delivery related costs as part of the second ROPS and recommended that these costs should be included in the administrative budget, staff is requesting the Board to consider staff's request to include Project Delivery expenses in ROPS #3. New redevelopment legislation, AB 1484, expanded the definition of administrative cost allowance to include: "administrative cost allowances shall exclude any litigation expenses related to assets or obligations, settlements and judgments, and the costs of maintaining assets prior to disposition. Employee costs associated with work on specific project implementation activities, including, but not limited to, construction inspection, project management, or actual construction, shall be considered project specific costs and shall not constitute administrative costs Section 34171 (b)" Thus, staff recommends that Project Delivery expenses be allowed to be included in ROPS #3 for the period ending on June 30, 2013.

Project Delivery Costs will include staff costs for specific projects which were approved as part of the ROPS: Southland Steel, Middleton and Carmelita. Project delivery costs include cost for the following three positions within the Community Development Department responsible for implementing these projects- Community Development Director; Housing and Community Development Manager, and Redevelopment Project Manager and consultants on an as needed basis. Other Successor Agencies (i.e. Burbank and Pasadena) included project delivery costs as part of their first and second ROPS and were approved by their respective Oversight Boards and subsequently by the Department of Finance. The attached administrative budget is for the six-month fiscal period commencing on January 1, 2013 and ending on June 30, 2013.

FISCAL IMPACT: As discussed above, AB X1 26 provides for the Successor Agency to receive an annual Administrative Cost Allowance of not less than $250,000. However, the allowances are subject to reduction if there are insufficient funds to pay the former Community Development Commission's enforceable obligations.

RECOMMENDATION: It is recommended that the Oversight Board approve the attached Resolution approving the draft third Administrative Budget for the period of January 1, 2013 through June 30, 2013 and the attached Cooperative Agreement between the Successor Agency and the City of Huntington Park.
